

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and concurred in.

Mr. Ely reported a bill, entitled, an act to amend an act, entitled, an act to release the right of the State to a part of a tract of land therein mentioned, passed at December session 1810, chap. 8;

And, Mr. Carpinter, reported a bill, entitled, an act supplemental to an act, entitled, an act to authorise the appointment of commissioners and the division of Charles county into school districts;

Which were severally read the first, and by special order the second time, passed, and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. McLean, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, entitled, an act for the relief of Kendall S. Cropper, of the city of Philadelphia;

The said bill was then read the second time, passed, and sent to the Senate.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the house proceeded to consider the first order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. Carpinter, chairman of the committee of the whole house, entitled, an act to amend the constitution and form of government of the State of Maryland;

On motion of Mr. Ghiselin, said bill was postponed until Monday next;

The house then proceeded to consider the second order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. McLean, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, entitled, an act relating to bills of exchange and promissory notes;

On motion of Mr. McLean, said bill was recommitted;

The house then proceeded to consider the third order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. Ford, chairman of the committee on the constitution, entitled, an act providing for the appointment of clerks of the several county courts, the clerks of the courts of Appeals for the Eastern and Western Shores, the clerk of Baltimore city court, and the Register's of Wills in the several counties of this State;

On motion of Mr. Harrison, said bill was postponed until Monday next;

The house then proceeded to consider the fourth order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee on ways and means, entitled, an act to invest the States share of the surplus revenue of the United States, and for other purposes;
